Nine out of ten Weeks

SKIING

LEAMINGTON skier Oliver Weeks made it nine wins from ten outdoor races at the SnowSport England Club National 2011 Series.

Nine-year-old Weeks' consistency has seen him win races in Norwich, Welwyn, Bromley, Stoke (twice), Sunderland, Gloucester, Ipswich and Southampton.

The only race the Brookhurst

Primary School pupil did not win was at Pendle where he was beaten into second by a skier from the host club.

Weeks trains twice a week at Midland Ski Club at The Ackers in Birmingham and his father says it is his dedication which sets him apart.

"Oliver loves his skiing and loves to win. He has the drive to succeed and I'm sure he'll continue to compete at the highest level."
