Weeks has day to remember

SKIING

BROOKHURST Primary School skier Oliver Weeks finished a fantastic summer race season by winning his category at the Welsh Open Ski Championship in Pontypool.

This year's championship saw over 100 skiers from around Britain and Ireland competing on a slalom ski course on one of the longest artificial ski slopes in the country.

Eight-year-old Weeks, who was one of the youngest racers in the under-ten's category, has been skiing since he could stand and trains two evenings a week with Midland Ski Club at Ackers Adventure slope in Birmingham.

Oliver Weeks had a fine end to the summer.
